

COME GROW, MEET & SHARE WITH WORKPLACE LEARNING COLLEAGUES AT...
2009 ASTD-Cascadia Regional Conference
THE EVOLUTION OF LEARNING
September 23 - 24, 2009

Featuring Special Pre-Conference Event Sept. 22, 2009

Salem Conference Center • Salem, Oregon

Tracking the evolution of the learner, classroom, organization, and learning professional, the 2009 ASTD-Cascadia Regional Conference schedule offers an array of intensive, interactive experiences for every workplace learning professional from novice to expert.

Keynote speaker for The Evolution of Learning will be Greg Bell, author of “Water the Bamboo.” Greg combines humor and high motivational energy with practical advice – an unbeatable combination for the people he helps to develop outstanding relationships and communication practices. Greg will also present a workshop on The New Three Rs for Workplace Learning.

During general and breakout sessions, other gifted presenters will tackle topics as diverse as “Creating the Best of Teams in the Worst of Times,” “Ten Steps to Virtual Classroom Success,” and “How to Understand, Develop, and Retain the Four Generations in the Workplace.”

Patti Dobrowolski, a nationally-acclaimed performer, business consultant and keynote speaker will be the presenter at a special pre-conference event, Snapshot of the Big Picture on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 22. During this four-hour workshop, participants will learn a powerful visual approach to creating strategy and preparing for change.

All this, and an abundance of formal and informal networking too! Blocks of conference time are set aside for facilitated discussions. The onsite Cyber Café beckons, and after hours, attendees will be welcomed at area restaurants for casual fun and conversation.
